Re: FY25- 306 Fletcher-Hill/Williams

Dear Ms. Williams:

The Maryland Commission on Judicial Disabilities (“Commission”) has received your correspondence containing allegations against Judge Lawrence Fletcher-Hill of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City.

Pursuant to Maryland Rule 18-421(b), the allegations have been considered and found not to constitute a meritorious complaint that should be pursued because they are factually unfounded, or even if proved, fail to establish sanctionable conduct, impairment, or disability. If you have additional information in support of the allegations, please submit it in writing within the next 30 days either by mail to the address above or by email to commJD@mdcourts.gov.

Please note that the Commission does not have the authority to change, modify, or reverse a judge’s decision or otherwise intervene in any court proceeding. Investigations conducted by this office are required by law to be confidential. For further information about the Commission, please refer to www.mdcourts.gov/cjd.

Thank you for bringing this matter to the attention of the Commission.

Sincerely,

Tanya C. Bernstein
