CLERK, CIRCUIT COURT BALTIMORE COUNTY

*****

1. MOTION TO HAVE THE DEFENDANT'S LEGAL FIREARM AND AMUNITIONS RETURNED TO THE DEFENDANT. 2. MOTION TO HAVE THE DEFENDANT'S RECORD EXPUNGED.

I, Diana R. Williams, the Defendant who is being represented Pro Se, hereby, requests that the Defendant's: 1. Motion To Have The Defendant's legal Firearm And Ammunitions Returned To The Defendant. 2. Motion To Have The Defendant's Record Expunged based on the grounds and authorities cited below.

According to the Probation/Supervision Order issued on 5-20-21, the Defendant was ordered Probation before Judgment (Criminal Procedure Article & 6-220) for two years, with no supervision, to have no contact with the victim, Amy Penn, to surrender firearms, and may not own or possess a firearm during her probationary period. With today being 5-30-23, the evidence of the material fact that the Defendant record available to the Court substantiates the material fact that the Defendant has honored all of her probation requirement. Since the Defendant's has satisfied the Court's requirement in complying with all conditions, the Defendant is pleading that the Court dismiss the action against the Defendant and, thus, no criminal proceeding will take place, and, therefore, the State Prosecutor and/or the Police Department do not need to continue to hold the Defendant's legal firearm and her 15 bullets for evidence during the criminal proceedings. During the arrest of the Defendant on 10-19-20, the police confiscated the Defendant's gun which was inside the Defendant's blue gun case which was closed, six ammunitions inside the gun, 9 ammunitions, a thumb drive, a piece of paper with notes written it, and the certificate indicating the Defendant's ownership of the firearm underneath the sponge inside the gun case. On this same day and as witnessed by the Defendant's soulmate, Mr. Jimmy Porter, a police officer returned the Defendant's blue gun case and all of the Defendant's items except for her firearm which was loaded with 6 ammunitions and the Defendant's 9 ammunitions with were under the sponge in the Defendant's gun case. Consequently, the Defendant is pleading that her firearm and 15 ammunitions be returned to the Defendant in a timely manner. Furthermore, the Defendant is pleading that, since she has successfully complied with her 2-year unsupervised probation, the Defendant no longer has a conviction on your record. Therefore, the Defendant is, also, pleading that the Court have her record be expunged as soon as possible.

CONCLUSION

Thus, in conclusion, the Defendant pleads the Court grants her Motions.
